TEWINBURY

Tewinbury is a riverside farm and hotel in Hertfordshire, 30 minutes from London. Tewinbury has been the Williams family home, our home, since 1931. As stewards of the estate, our family and team of proud farmers and hosts has one simple aim: to nurture our land and guests, creating an environment where both thrive together.

For guests, that environment is one of nourishing moments, natural energy, and good-natured fun. Lively spaces to get together and get inspired. Great food and drink that's seasonal, homemade, and usually homegrown. Interesting experiences to learn, recharge, and feel good. And of course warm bedrooms to switch off, relax and unwind in.

Stay, work, feast, switch on/off, move, and celebrate across 700 acres of nature. Whether you're in one of our restaurants or rooms, on the farm or in the Farm Club.

LOCATION

Tewinbury Farm is set in the Hertfordshire countryside, providing a peaceful break from the busy city. Situated by the Mimram River near the village of Tewin, the farm is surrounded by natural landscapes.
