About

PARK HYATT PARIS-VENDÔME

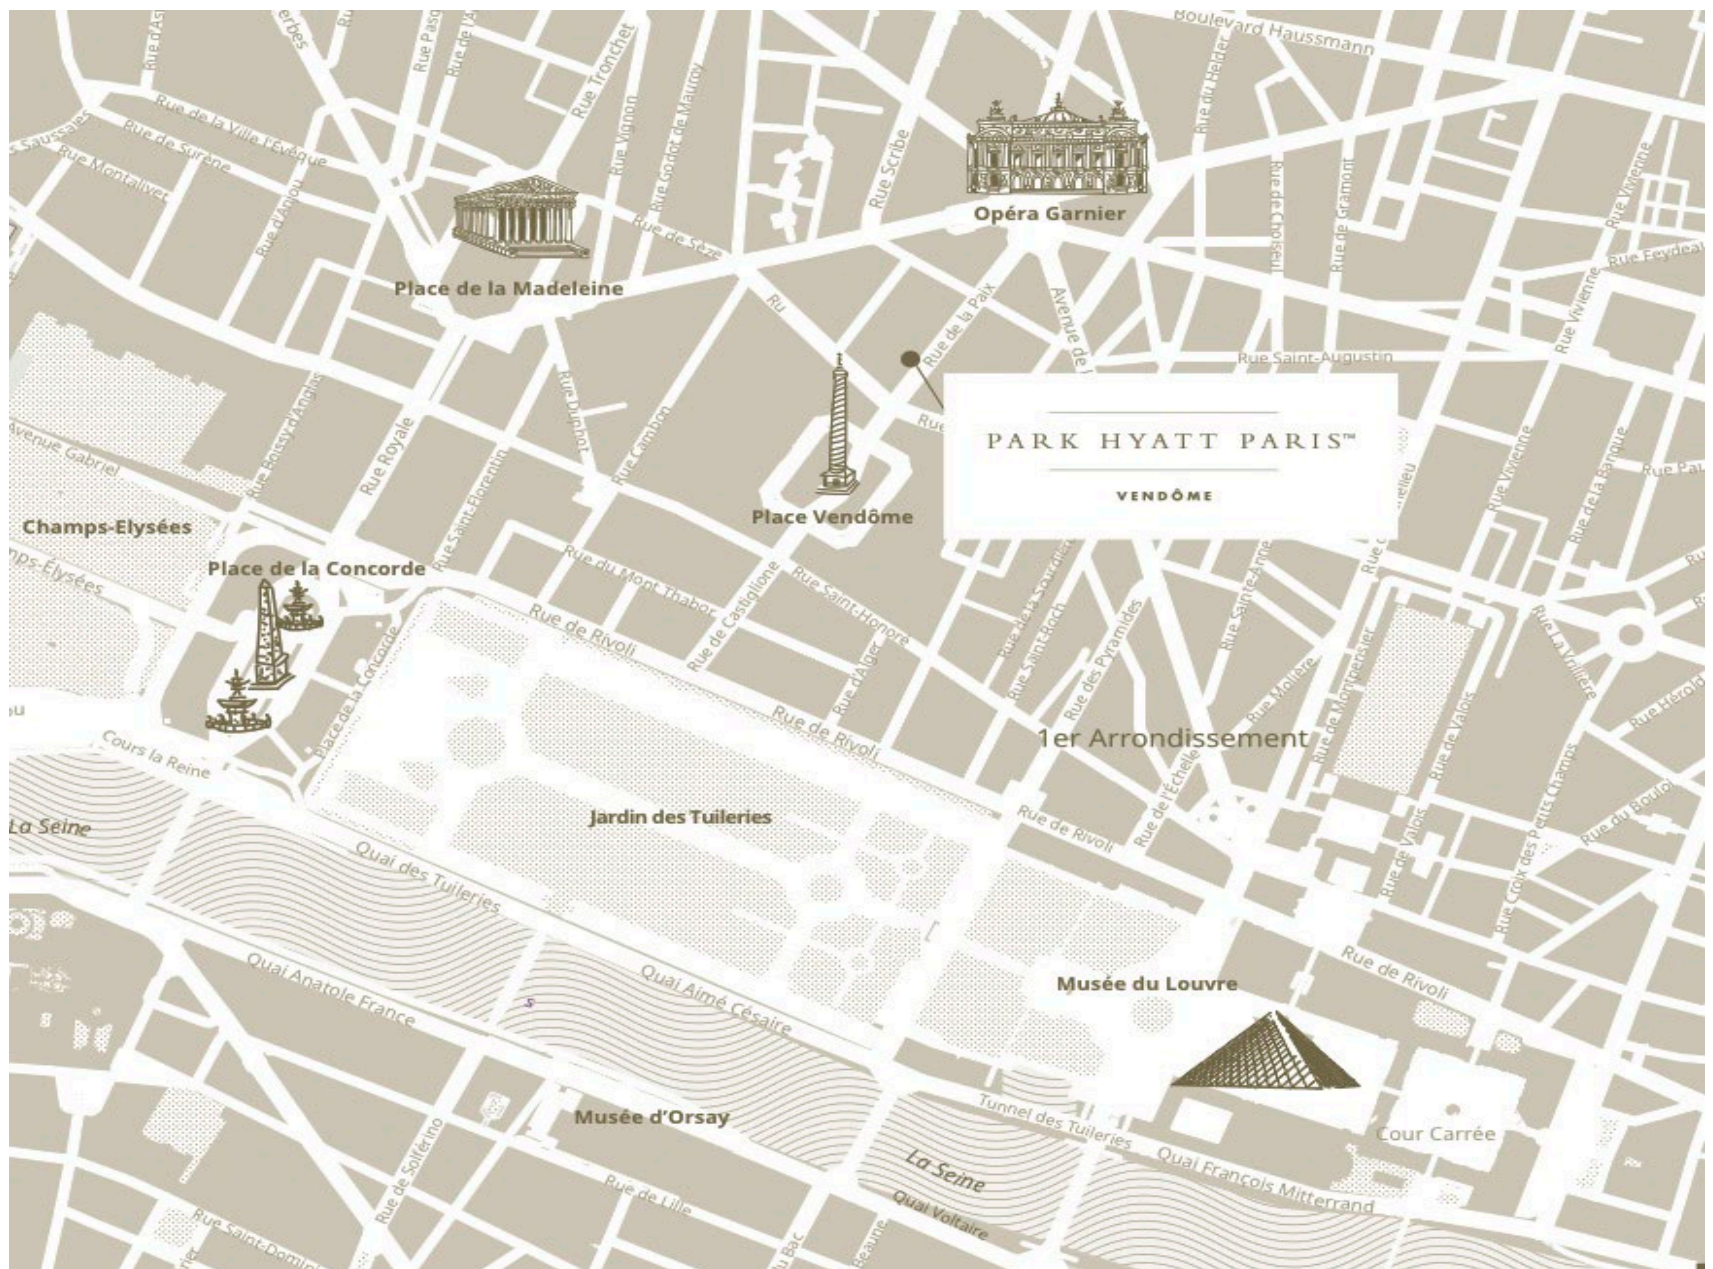

Park Hyatt Paris-Vendôme is the first contemporary palace in Paris. Ideally located at 5 rue de la Paix, the hotel is a stone's throw from Place Vendôme and the Opéra Garnier. Inspired by the building's historical past, interior designer Ed Tuttle subtly combined French classicism and contemporary design. The 156 rooms, including 45 suites, have all been designed to feel like in a refined Parisian apartment, decorated with works of art and carefully selected furniture. The hotel has three signature suites of over 200 square meters.

Park Hyatt Paris-Vendôme is also a true gastronomic destination, with the Pur – Jean François Rouquette Michelin-starred restaurant, and the new Café Jeanne – a distinguished, spacious and welcoming restaurant and bar with indoor and outdoor facilities that celebrates the heritage of French Café culture throughout the day until late night. Whether in winter in the Chalet or on warmer days, the Café Jeanne's terrace turns out to be a haven of peace in the heart of the hotel.

For the ultimate in well-being, the hotel has an intimate spa with La Mer products as its exclusive partner, and a unique 'hair room service' by star hairdresser John Nollet.

With well-thought-out facilities, contemporary decor, breathtaking suites and unparalleled elegance, Park Hyatt Paris-Vendôme hotel is an unforgettable address in the City of Lights.
