San Clemente Suite

With picture windows running the length of every room, the palace's most expansive and private suite offers unrivalled views of the lagoon city. Spanning the entire floor of a secluded wing, the suite pairs sophisticated modern furnishings with exposed timber ceilings, wooden pillars and elaborate masonry original to the monastery. The interiors are replete with bespoke details including custom Calacatta marble, handmade silks and Murano tapware. With its full kitchen, this magnificent accommodation sets the stage for chef-prepared meals paired with Italian vintages from the suite's own wine cellar. Guests in residence can come and go by gondola or boat via a private pier.

“Best European Suite” 2018 World Travel Awards

Tintoretto Suite

Named in honour of Venice's famed Renaissance 16th century painter Jacopo Cobin called Tintoretto, the luxurious suite offers a bright and airy residential atmosphere. Elegantly appointed with classic furnishings, the voluminous suite features Murano glass chandeliers strung from vaulted ceilings, traditional Terrazzo flooring and large windows overlooking the palace's centuries-old gardens.

In combination with a connecting room, this sanctuary of tranquility can be reserved as a two-bedroom suite.

Tiepolo Suite

Classic embellishments - such as voluptuous drapes, silk-covered walls, Terrazzo flooring and Murano glass chandeliers - characterize this enchanting private retreat which is named after the renowned 18th-century painter Giovanni Battista Tiepolo.

Both the salon and bedroom feature lofty ceilings and three-meter-high windowed doors which open to captivating gardens and stunning views of the setting sun.

Marco Polo Suite

Located at the water's edge in the exclusive Navigante Wing, the elegant Marco Polo Suite features handsome appointments with subtle seafaring blue accents. Four large windows are positioned along the suite's gracefully curved living room to frame panoramic views of the Venice Lagoon and St. Mark's bell tower on the horizon. Private boats, passing close by, recall the adventurous spirit of the suite's namesake merchant explorer

Giardini Villa

Offering blissful seclusion, the Giardini Villa is a serene oasis tucked away from the main buildings. The elegant Italian bungalow juxtaposes heritage features with modern décor and encourages indoor-outdoor living with two dining patios, a sunning area and an enclosed private garden.

An excellent option for families or those seeking enhanced privacy, the villa can be reserved with an adjoining room to form a two-bedroom villa.

Venice Suite

A vision of timeless elegance, the Venice Suite is decorated with classic furnishings and luxuriant textiles, including plush platinum carpeting and silk wallcoverings. The peaceful setting is enhanced with beguiling views of the palace's idyllic gardens and historical courtyard. With its spacious floor plan and welcoming foyer, the suite is an especially popular choice for families.

The Venice Suite is designed with your comfort and convenience in mind. It has a separate entrance area and living room, along with a walk-in closet, helping you to settle in during your stay.

Lido Suite

Taking its name from matchless views of the lagoon and Lido Island, the Lido Residence delivers a unique atmosphere. Featuring modern furnishings and beautiful honey-hued woodwork, the luxurious haven is enveloped in a warm patina and accentuated by glorious sunrises and sunsets over the water. The residence, which features a private pier, can be reserved with an adjoining room to form a two-bedroom accommodation.
