WELCOME

The Kempinski Hotel Das Tirol, located in the heart of the Kitzbühel Alps, harmonically combines modern architecture with Tyrolean flair. Wooden-lined, it nestles perfectly in the surrounding mountains and reflects regional flair in every room. The 155 rooms and suites are the perfect hideaway for discerning travellers – be it to relax, to be active or to just savour the moment. You will find “the place to be” in every season.

In summer: You can go Nordic walking, explore the area on a Mountain or E-bike, hike in the stunning nature, go rock climbing, take advantage of one of the close by golf courses, or just stroll around Kitzbühel for fashionable shopping.

In winter: get cosy in warm snow boots, try out the latest ski trends and take the short walk from our ski room to the slope. Ski-in and Ski-out in one of the largest alpine ski areas with 234 kilometres of slope and secure snow right into the valley.

KITZBÜHEL ALPS

all-year-round destination

Glitz, glamour and Tyrolean charm: Kitzbühel has a reputation as a mountain village that attracts a high number of celebrities and hosts unique events. And this reputation is well-deserved. However, it's not just Kitzbühel itself that's always worth a visit; the surrounding mountains are the other main draw, with the Kitzbühel Alps attracting visitors from all over the world.

In both summer and winter, the mountains and valleys offer lots of variety, from winter sports on the legendary Hahnenkamm to tennis and golf in renowned facilities.

MEET THE TEAM

Groups & Events department

Kempinski Hotel Das Tirol is extremely proud of the team of passionate and motivated Groups & Events professionals, who are in charge of planning, organising, coordinating and executing various types and sizes of events in the hotel.

Kevin Schoenenberg - (Events & Operations Manager)

Since 2016, he takes care of the trouble-free execution of private and corporate events as part of the Kempinski Hotel Das Tirol team. He impresses every customer with his particular commitment to every group or event he takes on. His ability to always remain calm under pressure is appreciated by customers and contact partners. Kevin takes care of your requests and accompanies your event from planning to debriefing with care and individual solutions.

Christina Haungs - (Groups & Events Coordinator)

With her verve and pertinent experience in the luxury hotel industry, Christina Haungs has enriched the Groups & Events team of the Kempinski Hotel Das Tirol since 2019. In Traube Tonbach, well-known beyond Germany, she became an expert in event planning, customer care and in the realization of events. Responsible for wedding planning, organization of corporate events, birthdays and events in our hotel, she is happy to assist with all your inquiries. Due to her creative ideas and experience, Christina handles every part of the event organization from the preliminary discussion over the planning to the implementation of your desired event with extraordinary professionalism and devotion to detail.
