GASTHUIS

Gasthuis by Martin's Klooster is a soulful renaissance of the former Saint-Pierre Hospital, once dedicated to care and healing — now reinvented as a sanctuary of beauty, connection, and unforgettable experiences. Nestled on the edge of the botanical garden of Leuven, this establishment draws its inspiration from both science and nature. It features 32 rooms that combine comfort and character, and a ground floor dedicated to the pleasures of the table: the signature restaurant and bar CURATIO offers seasonal cuisine inspired by local products.

Gasthuis by Martin's Klooster is also a meeting place. Its large modular spaces are perfectly equipped to host both meetings, creative brainstorming sessions, and elegant receptions. Here, classical architecture harmoniously coexists with contemporary technology, allowing your events to be rooted in history while remaining connected to the present.
