Valencian stately home from the 19th century

This listed palace used to be a large stately home from the 19th century which embodies the city's maritime spirit and values. It is located in one of the most beautiful and centrally located streets in Valencia, where art and style come together and fill this original enclave with energy. It's fascinating history awaits us, so we can discover with great care and mystery something which is genuine and pure. The hotel is located in a privileged area of the Eixample Noble area of the city, just 500 yards from the old town and the Turia Gardens. This boutique hotel is the nearest to the AVE high-speed train station located in the center of Valencia.
