

The Palace,
a Luxury Collection Hotel, Madrid

AN AUTHENTIC LANDMARK IN THE HEART OF MADRID

Commissioned by King Alfonso XIII in 1912, The Palace Hotel, Madrid is located in the renowned Art Walk, included in the UNESCO World Heritage List as "Paisaje de la Luz" (The Landscape of Light). This area links the city's most enriching museums, El Prado, Reina Sofía, and Thyssen-Bornemisza, and owns the most important monuments and some of the best tapas restaurants in town.

LOBBY

LA CÚPULA

La Cúpula restaurant with a spectacular circular bar under the iconic glass dome, a true jewel of Art Nouveau style, will be once again the 'place to be' in Madrid. This space has witnessed great events throughout its 112-year history. This establishment is much more than a hotel; it is part of the history of this city. The list of illustrious guests and artists who have stayed at the hotel is endless, to name but a few: Picasso, Dalí, García Lorca, Hemingway, Borges, Ava Gardner, Marlon Brando, and a long etcetera.

27 CLUB

27 Club, an exclusive venue dedicated to the Generation of '27, celebrates the artistic history of the hotel, paying homage to its rich heritage with an impressive collection of artworks, excellent mixology and connection to the hotel's evolving history.

HALLWAYS

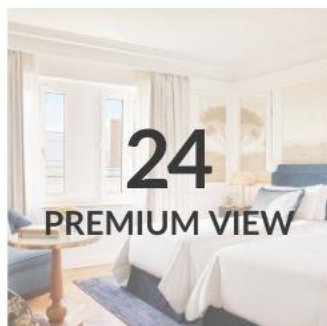

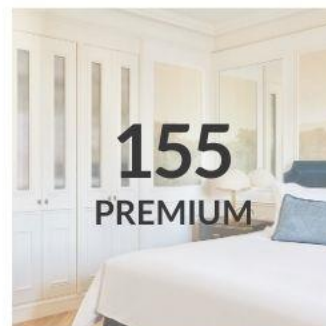

As you wander through the corridors, you'll feel like you've entered a magical forest. The materials chosen are meant to capture the enchanting forest atmosphere, with high-quality wool illustrations covering the walls. Custom-made wooden panels add to the experience, surrounding you with the charm of the forest. Across all six floors, you'll find a blend of deluxe and premium rooms, along with various types of suites.

ACCOMMODATION

All rooms recreate an elegant and classic atmosphere with a unique setting, where guests can experience the essence of Madrid in times gone by. The wallpaper in the rooms has been designed and hand-painted and is inspired by El Retiro Park (an oasis of nature in the heart of Madrid).
