MEETINGS AND EVENTS

With over 24,500 square feet of meeting and function space, each meeting room features spacious pre-function areas for entertaining, be it a cocktail reception before dinner or tea breaks between meetings.

Capella Singapore's Ballroom features Singapore's first circular, pillarless ballroom with a glass-dome skylight, its centrepiece is a magnificent glass sculpture by Nikolas Weinstein, which floats from the dome's centre.

Three meeting rooms, Sentosa I, II and III, feature floor-to-ceiling windows and separated by an operating wall, can accommodate groups of between 70 and 100 guests. These function rooms can serve as smaller breakout rooms, or combine as a larger setting for up to 170 people.

Capella Singapore's Business Centre offers two boardrooms – 1,248 and 549 square feet, respectively, equipped with high-speed wireless internet.

CHEF'S TABLE

Savour irresistible epicurean fare prepared à la minute in the comforts of a private home-styled kitchen and dining venue.

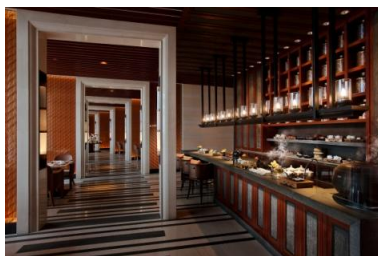

A feast for the senses, enjoy quality bespoke menus masterfully prepared in front of your eyes as your personal chef for the day rustles up a dazzling array of mouth-watering cuisine with impressive culinary finesse, utilizing only the freshest seasonal ingredients.

DINING OPTIONS

Cassia, a Cantonese fine dining restaurant designed by Hong Kong's famed Andre Fu offers seating for up to 94 guests. A more intimate meal can be shared in the restaurant's private dining salon, available for up to 12 guests. Lunch and dinner options are available daily from 12pm-2.30pm and 6.30pm to 10.30pm respectively.

The Knolls restaurant presents an authentic Mediterranean menu as well as a delectable Sunday brunch spread. The restaurant accommodates up to 76 guests indoors, with additional alfresco seating for up to 32 diners. The Knolls offers a sensational view of the hotel's three cascading swimming pools and overlooks the South China Sea. The Knolls is open from 7am to 11pm daily.
