The fascination of Rome is endless – from the grandeur of the classical age to the beauty of the Renaissance through to the modern elegance of today. Located between the Spanish Steps and Piazza del Popolo, Hotel de Russie is considered by many as one of the city's greatest treasures - a tranquil retreat amid a vibrant city. Guests are ideally positioned to explore the many wonders of the Eternal City, including the Vatican, Piazza Navona, the Trevi Fountain and the designer boutiques of Via del Babuino and Via Condotti.

The hotel has an extraordinary Secret Garden where guests can dine alfresco, or enjoy a quiet stroll. Le Jardin de Russie serves an Italian menu created by internationally renowned chef Fulvio Pierangelini and the Stravinskij Bar is a popular place for an aperitif or a light lunch.
