

A coveted address since 1894

Lounge and Lobby Area

Designed by famed architect Pierre-Yves Rochon, the restoration has masterfully captured the spirit of the city while maintaining the glamour and impeccable style.

Lumen Cocktails & Cuisine

Lumen is set for vanguards and luminaries, stylish and classy. Designed for cultured conversation over afternoon tea or a glass of fine wine, surrounded by works of art and installations curated in exclusive collaboration with Galleria Continua and unique objects of Larusmiani collection.

The impressive lounge signals grandeur and grace, as old-world splendour converges with modern style and sophistication

The Library

Adjoining the lounge, the intimate, sapphire-blue Library with its curated compendium of books from around the world. The library is an unparalleled place to enliven the mind and broaden your thinking.

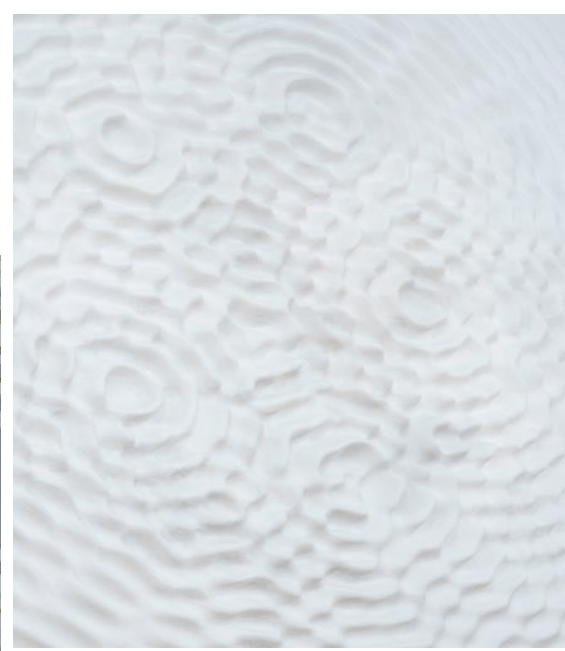

GALLERIA CONTINUA

SAN GIMIGNANO

BEIJING

LES MOULINS

HABANA

On the occasion of the unveiling of its newly renovated spaces, The St. Regis Rome is pleased to announce an exclusive partnership with Galleria Continua, contemporary art gallery with sites in San Gimignano, Beijing, Les Moulins and La Habana.

As of November 2018, every six months, the hotel will host exhibitions of the works of the artists represented by Galleria Continua. The calendar will be inaugurated by Loris Cecchini with the installation of 4 art works.

Our Courtesy Car

Guests of The St. Regis Rome will be able to enjoy the beauties of Rome on board of a real piece of Italian history: an iconic Fiat 600 Multipla from 1962, designed exclusively for the hotel.

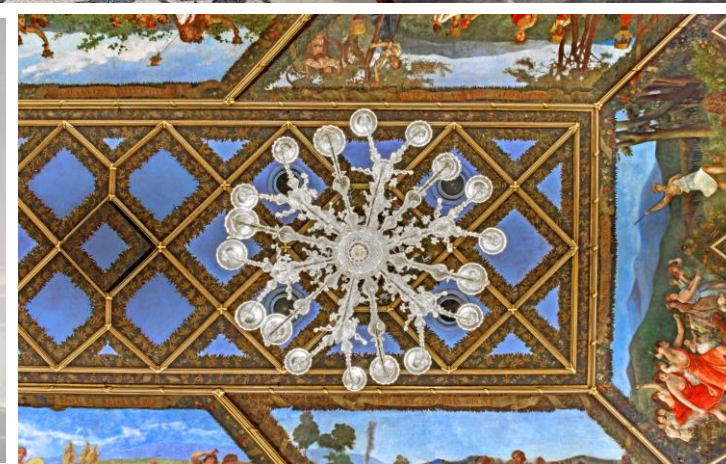

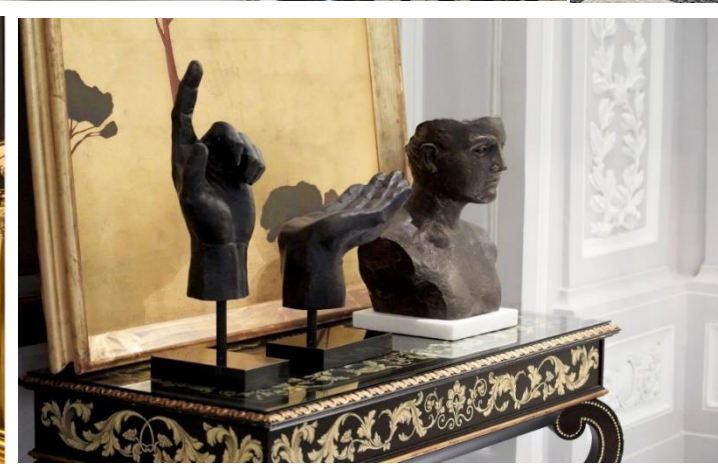

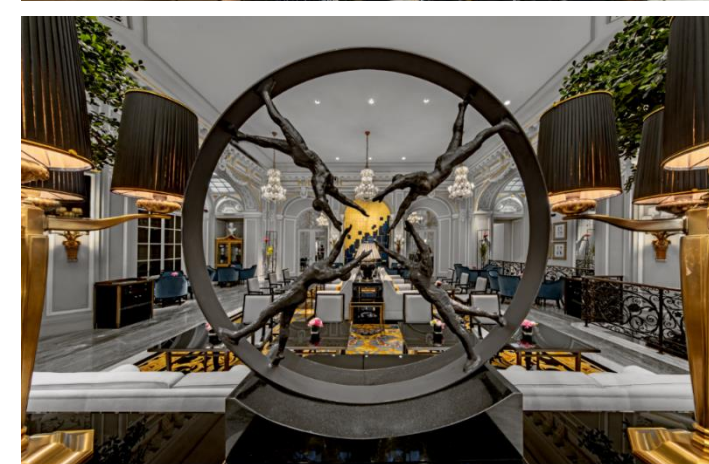

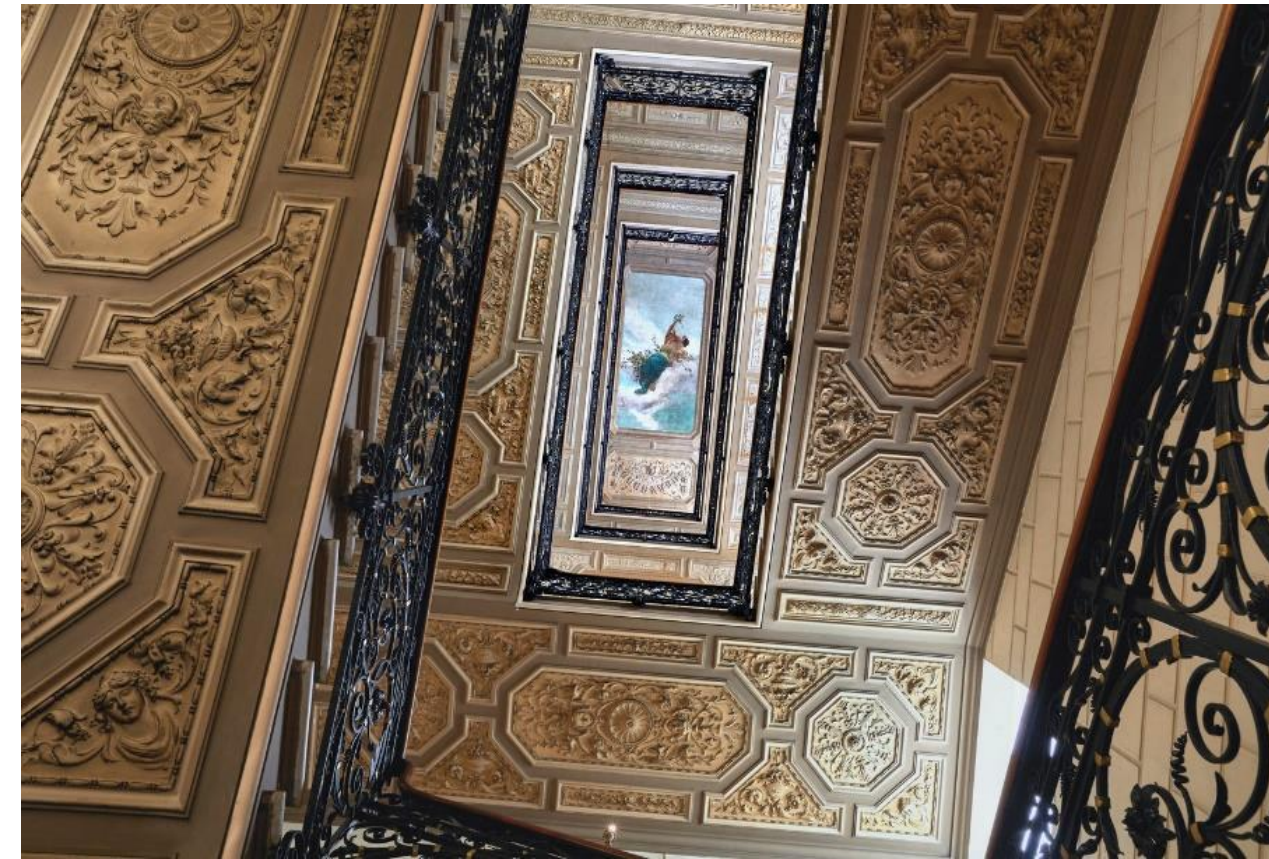

On this unique edition, designed and realized by Garage Italia, the engine is a new zero emission electric unit.

For the interiors, master saddlers have intervened on the door panels, the seats and on the roof lining, replicating a fresco by Pietro da Cortona, located in one of the salon of Palazzo Barberini in Rome.

It's all about details

Intricate moldings, precious mosaics, ancient frescoes and magnificent sculptural busts.

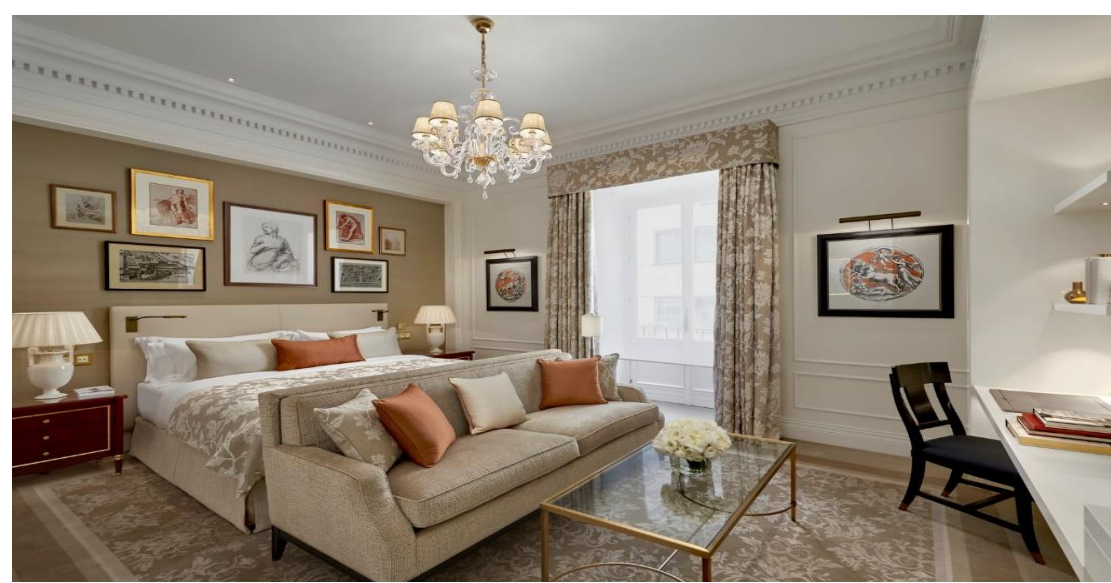

The finest Italian artisans has masterfully captured the spirit of the city while maintaining the glamour and impeccable style.

The Rooms & Suites

Envisioned as a sanctuary for luxury travelers, the new rooms have been fashioned in delicate powder blue and warm terracotta tones.

The Rooms & Suites

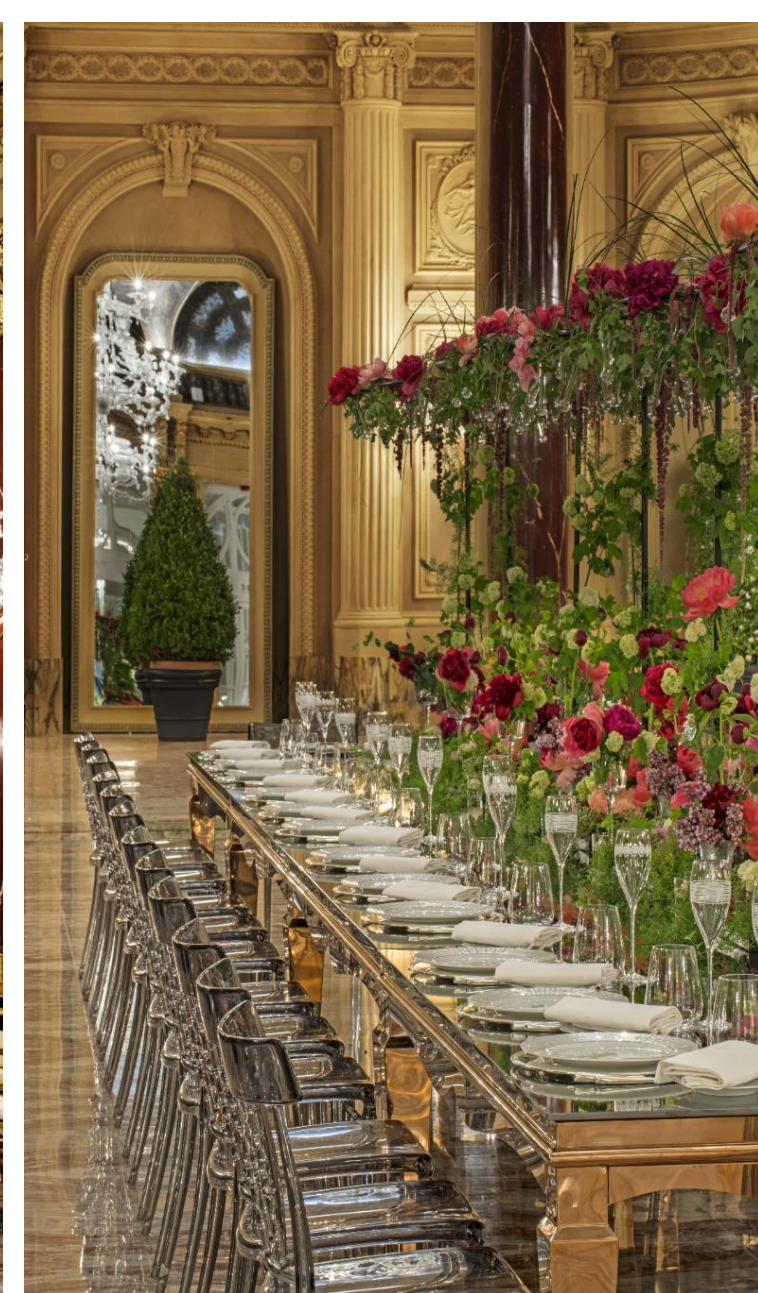

Royal Suite

Royal Suite, The Crown Jewel
Conceived to reveal the most elegant Roman private residences, the Royal Suite is a celebrated destination among arbiters of the global elite. Period furniture and classic artwork invite guests to luxuriate in 18th century refinement.

The Ritz Ballroom

Named after the renowned hotelier Cesar Ritz, the Ritz Ballroom was the very first public ballroom in Rome back in 1894. Designed by the Roman architect Giulio Podesti and decorated with frescoes of Mario Spinetti.

City's premiere venue for wedding, gala, social gatherings

The St. Regis Rome has 12 Rooms of varying sizes for any corporate or social gatherings. Each one offers a unique and original setting where the timeless elegance is matched by the latest advance technology.

Exclusive Butler Service

The new signature butler service plays to the intellectual and cultural interest of each guest.

Your trusted personal assistant who anticipates and attends to your every need.

Family tradition

Caring for our youngest guests, The St. Regis Rome offers a dedicated Family welcome, tailor-made to the little ones, interpreted by the legacy of the eternal city

Time for tea remains a quintessential St. Regis tradition, offering an impeccable selection of fine teas and refreshments.

“Champagne in victory, one deserves it; in defeat, one needs it”
Evening transform into sparkling celebrations

Evolution of a district, explore Rome under a new light

The St. Regis Rome has carefully selected for its guests five special places to discover, all located within one mile from our entrance.

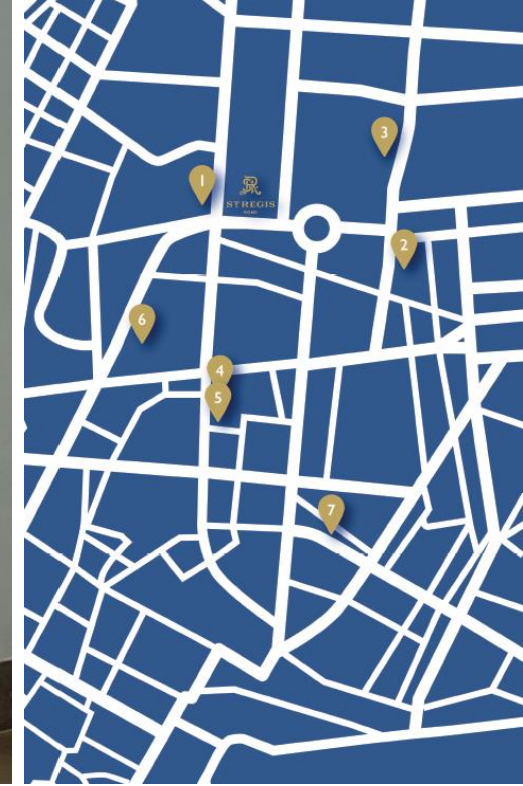

Santa Maria della Vittoria displays one of the richest decorations in all of Rome. As you walk under the gilded ceiling, surrounded by the most precious marbles, nothing can really prepare you for the vision of the ecstasy of Saint Teresa, Gianlorenzo Bernini's most moving masterpiece.

Diocletian Baths and Museo Massimo, home to famous pieces such as the legendary Discobolus, and the impressive frescoes detached from the Villa of Livia, Emperor Augustus's wife. Amongst the countless number of famous statues, mosaics, and precious objects, don't miss the bronze statue of the boxer.

Palazzo Barberini represents the apogee of the splendor of life in the Baroque Rome. the palace hosts an impressive collection of paintings including the legendary Fornarina by Raphael and the mesmerizing Judith Beheading Holofernes by Caravaggio. The grand staircase designed by Gianlorenzo Bernini access the Grand Salon, featuring one of the highest ceilings in Rome, magnificently decorated by Pietro da Cortona.

Cappella Bessarione, a mysterious Renaissance chapel rediscovered after centuries of oblivion in the Chiesa dei Santi XII Apostoli.

Palazzo Doria Pamphilj, a tribute from the neoclassical age to the ancient Roman tradition of the thermal baths.

The Evolution of a District Tour & Partnership with Baths of Diocletian

Private visit to The Baths of Diocletian, National Roman Museum, where to live a unique virtual reality experience transported back to 298 A.D., when the emperor Diocletian started to build - in that precise location - a magnificent “palace for the people” with hot-water pools and tubs, as well as gymnasiums, libraries, and a lavish garden. The immersive story continues with the transformation of the complex into a monastery by Michelangelo and ends with the construction of the new district with its grand palaces which until today still maintain the architecture of the original baths. The virtual reality experience, created with the support of the hotel, is available upon request in the hotel for the St. Regis Rome guests and also for the visitors of the Museo Nazionale Romano inside the octagonal aula according to a pre-established schedule.

Opening Event
November 8-10

Two days of extravagant celebrations and unparalleled experiences to discover the new light of The St. Regis Rome and pay homage to the exquisite atmosphere of the Eternal City.

November 8th Midnight Supper

128 national and international top tier media, top clients and roman socialites participated to one-of-a-kind dinner hosted in the Ritz Ballroom. Three long imperial tables were beautifully set in the middle of the ballroom and the Executive Chef Francesco Donatelli designed a special menu to celebrate the hotel's heritage and timeless glamour.

Casting Light on a New Era event November 9

The theme of light has been the fil rouge of Casting Light on a New Era event with a unique dreamlike and surreal atmosphere. The hotel welcomed approx. 800 selected national and international high-end guests, top-tier influencers and media and Roman socialite. The eclectic Nu'Art musicians and actors entertained guests upon arrival and during the first phase of the party with itinerant performances of instrumental music and songs and spectacular choreographies in the hotel lobby and bar. After dinner, guests have been invited by a scenographic champagne sabering to enter the Ritz Ballroom illuminated by a spectacular light show while the French band Les Cigales entertained guests who danced until late night.

Aristocratic Splendour Tour

The St. Regis Rome contributed to the restoration program promoted by the Fondazione Torlonia, which aims to enhance the extraordinary heritage of Villa Albani Torlonia. In particular, thanks to the support of The St. Regis Rome, two magnificent Roman sculptures dating back to the first Imperial period (1st-2nd centuries AD), have been restored with a masterful intervention and returned to their original location in the Villa.

