AN EXCEPTIONALLY CHARMING NEIGHBOURHOOD

Just a few steps from the Faubourg Saint-Antoine, Paris Bastille Boutet is nestled along one of Paris's oldest thoroughfares. Replete with cobblestone passageways where cabinetmakers, chisellers, upholsterers and other craftspeople can be found, this emblematic neighbourhood has lost none of its old-world charm. Embark on a historic journey near the Bastille, where the hotel's stunning facade, ceramics and cosy allure come together to make your stay a truly memorable experience.

INDUSTRIAL ELEGANCE

This stately building has a rich industrial heritage. Once a renowned cabinetmaker's workshop, later a chocolate factory, Maison Boutet is the culmination of an ingenious renovation project. Light from the glass roof dances along the winding black staircase framed in reinforced concrete. Exceptional rooms, including two signature suites – Ebène and Teck, designed by architects studying at the Ecole Boule – provide unparalleled comfort for business trips and getaways in Paris.

AN EXQUISITE MOMENT OF INDULGENCE

Relaxed, cosy moments await guests at the bar. In winter, savour a thick and creamy hot chocolate, made famous by Boutet. Or let yourself be surprised by deliciously original cocktails and cleansing smoothies concocted by the bartender at this unique establishment in the heart of Paris's faubourgs.

Memorable Moment.

Chocolate is the essence of Maison Boutet. Awaken the senses with a fabulous Boutet signature chocolate beauty treatment, and enjoy a gourmet getaway with a hot chocolate at the Bar.

Unparalleled pampering.

Well-being and serenity await you in the spa, the pool, the hammam and the sauna, where treatments and light therapy delight the body.

Comfort and cocooning.

Filled with light, thanks to generous windows, the rooms are nonetheless cosy and intimate. Some even offer privileged views of the rooftops of Paris from your private terrace.
