the region

In the Heart of the Oeste

Located in the parish of Turcifal, in Torres Vedras, Dolce CampoReal benefits from a privileged location in the heart of the protected area of Archeira and Socorro Mountains, considered one of the 100 most sustainable destinies in the world in 2015.

Marking the limits of the so-called Oeste Region and the tourism area of central Portugal, it is located just a 30-minute drive from Lisbon and a 20-minute drive from the medieval town of Óbidos, and from the enchanting beaches of Santa Cruz or Ericeira, perfect spots for surfing. Near the hotel you can also visit Centro de Interpretação das Linhas de Torres (interpretation centre/military museum) and learn the importance of a set of fortifications in the history of Portugal.

Another advantage of our localization is the fact that we are settled in the Lisbon wine-growing region, known for wines with a distinctive personality as a result of ancient Portuguese winemaking traditions.
