LANDSCAPE, LUXURY, HISTORY

Personality meets tradition.

The beautiful Traube Tonbach hotel is surrounded by the stunning natural landscape of Black Forest National Park.

In the 18th century, baker Tobias Finkbeiner opened a traditional tavern for the charcoal makers and lumbermen working in Tonbach Valley. The original "Traube" has become a modern luxury resort known for fulfilling its guests' every wish.

A LEGACY OF QUALITY

Yesterday and today.

Kids can tumble and play to their heart's delight with installations inspired by rafting and glass-blowing. History is told in a playful way across water slides, tree trunks for climbing and rope swings. The playground challenges kids to use their motor skills, agility and endurance while enjoying the spectacle - in a world made of organic structures and natural materials, which harmoniously blends into the Black Forest landscape.

The playground was developed by Stuttgart-based company KuKuk, known for its projects across Europe.
