1 Malersaal
This historic hall is not only a highlight but also the largest room in the hotel. With its ornate ceiling decorations, the exquisitely restored, almost-300-year-old Malersaal brings past epochs back to life. The large windows provide plenty of natural light, making it a very popular choice for festive occasions such as gala events or balls.

2 Johannes Brahms

This elegant, medium-sized hall has indirect light and is especially suitable for mid-sized meetings and workshops.

3 Clara Schumann

This is a medium-sized hall with indirect daylight and is very similar in dimension to the Johannes Brahms room. It is equally well suited for smaller meetings and seminars.

4 Hector Berlioz

Slightly smaller than the other two halls, this room is also without direct daylight. Its smaller size makes it ideal for workshops and seminars in a small circle.
