

Team Building

At Hilton St Anne's Manor

Set in 25 acres of land, Hilton St Anne's Manor is the perfect team building venue. Close to both London and Heathrow Airport, we can provide team building activities for any length of time, from a 1 day workshop to week-long events. We have now partnered with one of the leading corporate team building and event management companies in the UK. 'Advantage Events' will help deliver fun and innovative activities for your all your guests.

Whether you are after a better understanding of your team roles, processes, or simply want to reward your employees, we provide team building activities that are fun and creative with measurable results for your business. The Advantage team has diversified its Team Building activities to cover a full spectrum from in depth problem solving to increase team communications and moral to activities where having FUN is the main focus.
