7 FOOD AND DRINKS

7.1 RESTAURANT COCOTTE

To start the day with a comprehensive breakfast buffet, we welcome you to Restaurant Cocotte.

Numerous breakfast items, complemented with an egg dish of your choice, are at your disposal.

At lunchtime and in the evenings, you can enjoy classic contemporary dishes complemented by a few international specialties.

Of course, the typical Van der Valk dishes may not be missing. Our Executive Chef Eduardo and his passionate team ensure variety every day.

To compose the dishes our chef uses daily fresh ingredients, taking into account a number of regional and seasonal dishes.

All this is combined with an excellently compiled wine list, which also offers a wide range of wines by the glass.

Restaurant Cocotte also has an extensive terrace when the weather is favourable.

10 VICINITY

'GRAVENSTEEN' A FORTRESS IN GENT

A visit to the medieval Gravensteen cannot be missed during your city trip in Gent. The Gravensteen gives you a complete picture of knightly culture in the 12th century.

ST BAVO'S CATHEDRAL

This majestic and stately building is not something you just walk past. The Saint Bavo Cathedral is home to the Divine Masterpiece of the Van Eyck brothers, the Mystic Lamb. Would you like to visit the Mystic Lamb? Find out about the opening times of the Chapel of the Mystic Lamb in St Bavo's Cathedral.

THE BELFRY OF GENT

This building is part of the world heritage. When you look at the magical skyline of Gent, you cannot miss it. Between St Bavo's Cathedral and St Nicholas' Church. The fiery dragon is the symbol of the city of Gent. The Belfry symbolises the urban prosperity and independence of the city.

'STAM' THE CITY MUSEUM OF GENT

This modern city museum consists of a 14th century abbey, the 17th century monastery and the 21st century new building. Here you can discover the story of Gent from the Middle Ages to the present day. The past, the present and the future of the city are presented here through splendid collection pieces.
