Barcelona

Barcelona is a city full of original leisure options that encourage you to visit it again and again. Open to the Mediterranean Sea and famous for Gaudí and his modernist architecture, Barcelona is revealed as one of the trendiest European capitals.

The city is a focus of new trends in the world of culture, fashion and gastronomy. It combines the creativity of its artists and designers with the respect and care for the traditional places of always. In it, the charm and the pause of its historic center, the avant-garde of its most modern neighborhoods and the urban rhythm of one of the most visited cities in the world coexist.

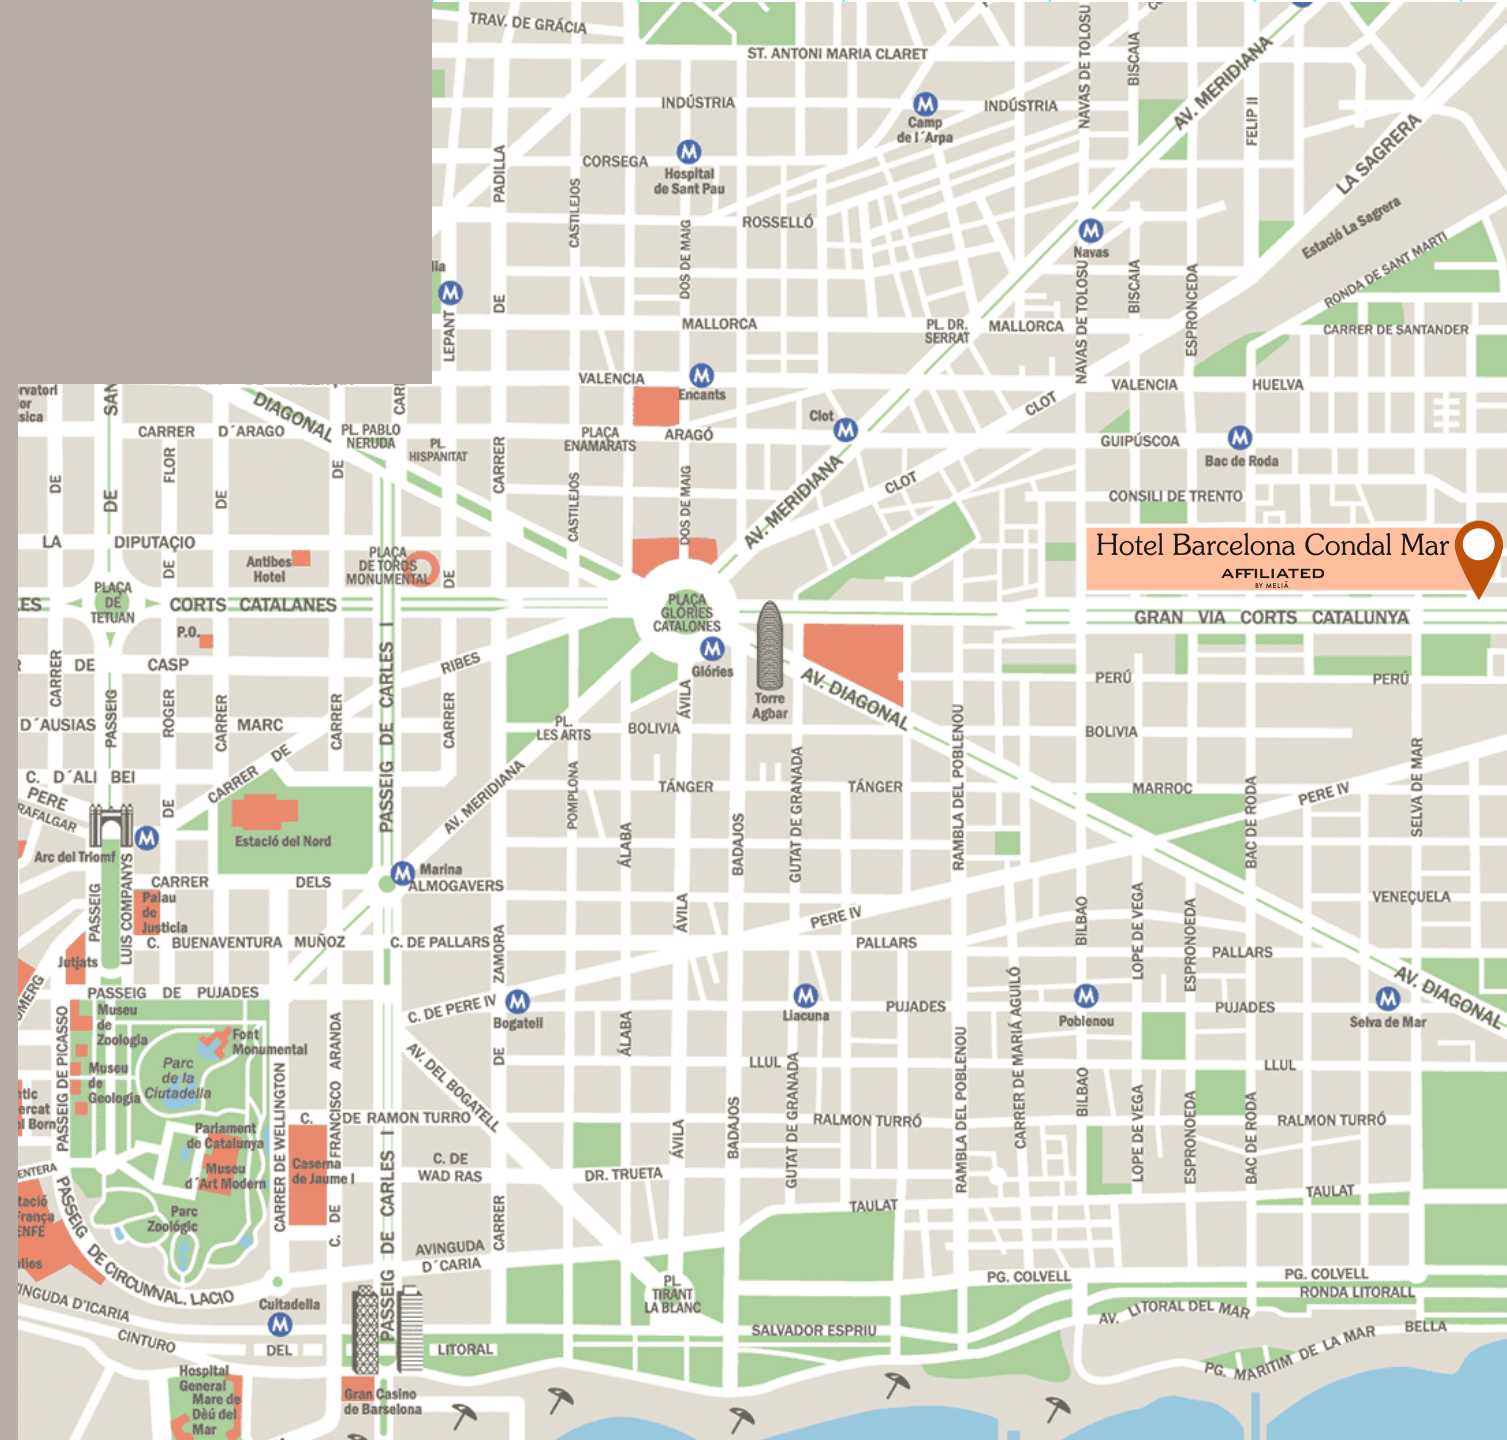

A rooftop swimming pool with a dark wooden deck, lounge chairs, and umbrellas. The pool is surrounded by a low wall, and a city skyline is visible in the background. The text "2 Hotel" is overlaid in the center.
