

A N d A Z™ | PRAGUE

OUR STORY

Our story begins with an expression of prosperity. In 1916, the Association of Sugar Manufacturers built a monumental Sugar Palace in the center of Prague on the Haymarket square to emphasize their influence on one of the world's most robust economies. The magical spot also houses one of Prague's oldest towers. Prague is called a city of 100 spires and Henry's Bell Tower is one of them. Adjacent directly to the Sugar Palace, together they create a majestic landmark.
