NH Collection Suecia and the best of Madrid

Fully refurbished in 2016, this five-star hotel is located in the heart of Madrid, looking out onto to Gran Vía and very close to Fuencarral street and the Chueca neighbourhood. A privileged location also because of its proximity to the Prado Museum, Plaza de Cibeles, Plaza de Neptuno and to the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum. And also because of the number of boutiques, cafés, designer shops and trendy restaurants.

Feel the place, be part of the history of the hotel

A hotel whose design was commissioned by the Swedish colony in Madrid to the architect Mariano Garrigues Díaz-Cañabate who had the support of the Swedish and Spanish authorities.

In 1956, this building was opened as Casa de Suecia and initially served as a meeting place for Swedish citizens residing in Madrid and Swedish companies in Madrid.

The Scandinavian Centre went on to have an establishment on the ground floor that was distributed between Sweden, Norway, Denmark and Finland. Thanks to it, many traditions were maintained like St. Martin's Day, St. Lucy's Day, the spring festival, Midsummer, smörgåsbord lunches at Hotel Suecia's Bellman Restaurant, the Christmas celebration and above all the Christmas bazaar.

But if there is a famous person connected forever with Hotel Suecia, it is Ernest Hemingway. The author of 'For Whom the Bell Tolls' began to visit Suecia because of its proximity to the Prado Museum, which he visited every day, and to the Círculo de Bellas Artes.

Now, next to the hotel doors, a plaque recalls the writer's stay: 'On the centennial of his birth, to Ernest Hemingway, who looking for artistic and cultural nourishment in Madrid wanted to reside in this hotel during the fifties, a haven for his extreme passion for the Prado Museum and because of its proximity to the Círculo de Bellas Artes. 1999'.

Modern and extremely comfortable rooms

The hotel has 123 rooms divided up into 51 Superior, 25 Superior with a view, 28 Premium, 5 Premium with a view, 3 Premium with a terrace, 8 Junior Suites and 3 Junior Suites with a terrace.

They all have been lavishly decorated by interior designer Mercedes Isasa and all include our core offering that features: mattresses designed exclusively for NH Hotel Group, rain showers, Nespresso coffee makers and teapots, 46" LED television screens, 1MB easy-access Wi-Fi, exclusive amenities and professional hair dryer, among other accessories.

The cuisine, another star

Chef Lluís Canadell, the creator of very attractive spaces in Barcelona like Boca Grande, El Nacional and Lomo Alto, brings his experience, creativity and his way of understanding quality cuisine. A cuisine always built around the best ingredients and served here in an inspiring environment.

Another gastronomic place to highlight at the hotel is the Casa Suecia terrace, which offers varied and attractive dishes with an added bonus of relaxing panoramic views of Madrid.

And we can't forget the splendid breakfasts, recognised among the best and most complete in the city, that included a wide range of premium quality products, carefully selected to start the day in the most delicious and healthy way.

In addition, the hotel's culinary selection is available 24 hours per day thanks to complete and efficient room service.

The hotel has a secret

It is the cocktail bar that is located just below the bar and is a place famous for its genuine atmosphere but also for being where Ernest Hemingway used to have cocktails in the company of other famous people such as bullfighters and artists. A visit not to be missed.

In-person service quality

The Guest Relations team of professionals offers customers personalised service, whether it be to make reservations at restaurants, shows, etc., or to inform them about activities and events that may be of interest to them.
