- Surrounded by lakes, mountains, and stunning countryside ideal for road trips.

SCENIC DRIVES

The Salzburg region offers some of the most picturesque driving routes in Austria, combining natural beauty with cultural richness. Start your journey in the Fuschlsee region, where winding roads hug crystal-clear lakes and rolling green hills, offering peaceful drives through charming villages and forested landscapes.

Continue toward Salzburg City for a blend of urban elegance and alpine views. Cruise past historic landmarks like Hohensalzburg Fortress and Mirabell Palace, and enjoy panoramic roads such as the Gaisbergstraße—popular among locals and driving enthusiasts alike.

From there, venture into the heart of the Salzkammergut, a UNESCO World Heritage region dotted with serene lakes like Wolfgangsee, Mondsee, and Hallstätter See. Curvy mountain roads and lakeside stretches make this area a dream for car lovers, with photo-worthy stops around every bend.

Whether in a classic convertible or a modern sports car, these routes offer unforgettable scenery, excellent road conditions, and the freedom to explore at your own pace.

SALZBURGRING RACETRACK

Just a short drive from the Arabella Jagdhof Resort am Fuschlsee, the Salzburgring offers an exceptional setting for showcasing vehicles in motion. Surrounded by mountains and nature, this professional racetrack combines performance-ready infrastructure with the elegance of an alpine backdrop—making it an ideal venue for automotive displays, test drives, product launches, and corporate driving events.

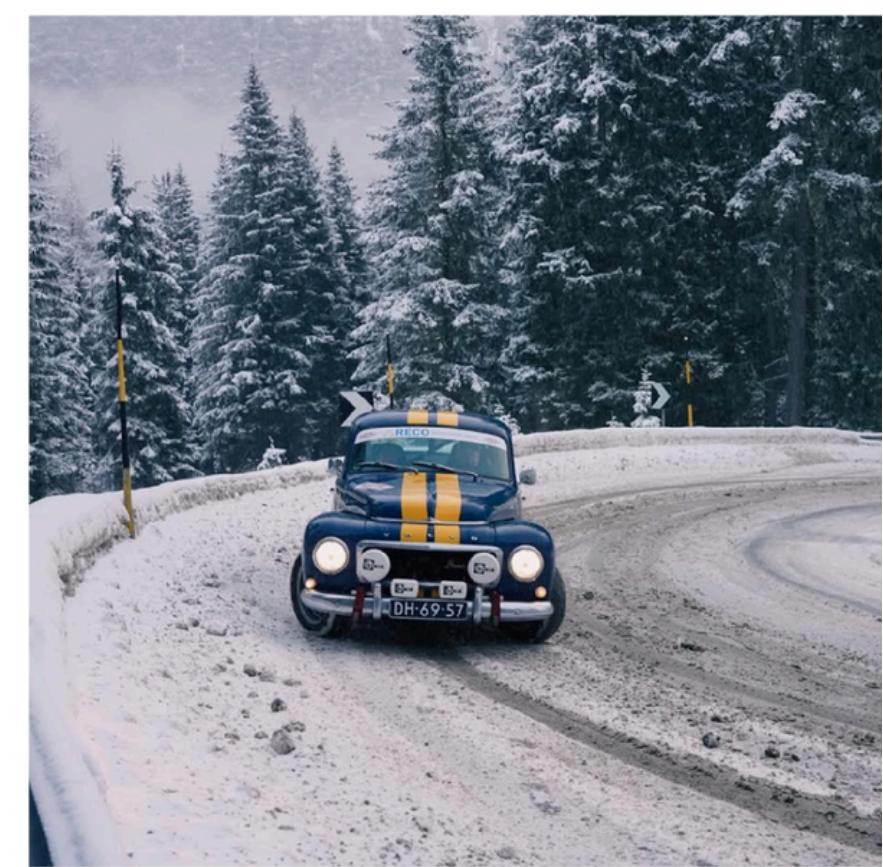

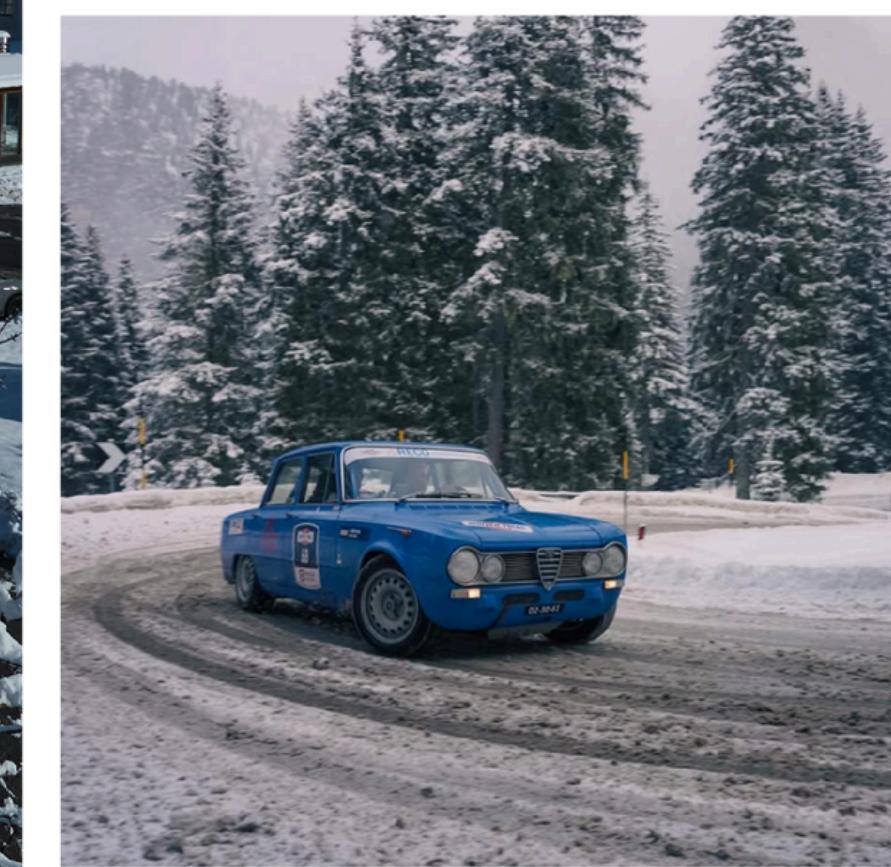

This iconic racetrack is known for its high-speed straights, challenging curves, and stunning natural surroundings—making it a favorite for car lovers, professionals, and motorsport fans alike.

Whether you're attending an event or organizing a driving experience, the Salzburgring brings speed and scenery together—just minutes from the comfort and elegance of the Fuschlsee region.

Whether you're launching a new model or offering VIP clients a day behind the wheel, Salzburgring delivers both performance and prestige in one of Austria's most scenic regions.
