Johan Huizinga said : IF WE ARE TO PRESERVE CULTURE, WE MUST CONTINUE TO CREATE IT’.

Following to this saying, Saint-Denis department took initiative to have the access to arts and cultural galleries for everyone. The Department also supports and sponsors numerous cultural events in the fields of cinema, theater, dance, music, photography, and more. Several significant artistic festivals and events are organized in Saint-Denis each year.

Heart of the project

The H4 Hotel Paris Pleyel embodies the fusion of diverse identities, among which the subtle blend of the tower's essence, the dynamic growth of a business hub, and a profound artistic influence which stand out.

With the chosen materials and interior design of the hotel, this concept comes to life with an evocation of the automated past, a harmony of contrasting influence where art and culture blend immensely with the meticulous integration of the memory, texture, and distinctive atmosphere of the tower.
