

NH GENOVA CENTRO

HOTEL LOCATION

In the heart of Genoa, the award-winning NH Genova Centro hotel beckons travelers seeking proximity to the city's cosmopolitan culture and attractions, only steps away from Piazza de Ferrari and Villetta di Negro park. Built in 1850, the hotel, formerly known as the NH Genova Plaza, has an impressive history dating back to the days of Giuseppe Mazzini, the 19th century politician best known for his efforts in the unification of Italy. Nearby De Ferrari metro station and the Brignole and Porta Principe train stations connect the hotel to greater Genoa and destinations throughout Italy.
