The 14th hotel for the brand and our 10th opening in Europe.

Housed in a building that was originally commissioned by the Royal Holland Lloyd Shipping Company in 1921, The Hoxton, Amsterdam has 136 bedrooms, a cocktail bar, a European brasserie, and an original Dutch windmill for a neighbour.

Interiors nod to the building's unique history; in the individually designed bedrooms plush velvet headboards, bold geometric patterns and contemporary furnishings combine to eye-catching effect.

136 rooms

Hosting a meeting or party?

The Apartment is a brand new space that's perfect for any meetings and events you're planning. There are three different sized rooms that can be used individually or together to suit your needs.

No rip-off policy

Our rooms have everything you need and nothing you don't. Everyone gets water, fresh milk, coffee and tea, and a fridge that's yours to stock with snacks and drinks from our Hox Shop, where you'll find beers, wines and soft drinks at supermarket prices.

Wining and dining?

There's not one, but two places for you to wine and dine in style. Opt for Blanca, a flamboyant cocktail bar that's inspired by turn of the century Argentina, or grab a table at the Breeman Brasserie, our European restaurant that's big on seafood dishes, create-your-own bagel towers and desserts.

The Neighbourhood

As always, we've chosen a neighbourhood with loads of personality – the hotel is located in the Eastern Docklands (Oostelijke Eilanden), a vibrant cultural hotspot on the banks of the IJ waterway where a rich maritime heritage mixes with thriving urban regeneration - expect quirky architecture, design shops and galleries. One of our favourite corners of Amsterdam, here you've got it all, with the sights in easy walking distance, as well as a more local way of life to dip in and out of.

How to get there

Rietlandpark tram stop is just three minutes' walk away from here and Central station is an eight-minute drive away, where you can hop on regional and international trains.

Amsterdam Schiphol airport is twenty minutes' drive from us.

The image shows a detailed interior of a restaurant. On the right, a curved bar is lined with numerous bottles of beer on shelves. In the center, there are several tall, grey stone pillars with green vines hanging from their tops. In the foreground, there are two tables with yellow lampshades on blue bases and potted plants. The ceiling has exposed wooden beams and several hanging light bulbs. The overall atmosphere is warm and rustic.
