Opened in summer 2021, YOTEL Porto, the first YOTEL in the Iberian Peninsula, is conveniently located in the heart of the traditional centre.

The hotel boasts self-service kiosks to save you time and ergonomically designed rooms to maximise space.

Breaking with traditional hotel conventions, YOTEL offer extraordinary value and a sense of community with stylish spaces to meet, work, relax and recharge, driven by sleek design and clever use of technology.

LOCATION

YOTEL Porto is a short walk from the city's main attractions including the historical streets of Ribeira, littered with restaurants and cafes, the ancient wine estates of the Douro River and the Port Wine lodges of Gaia.

In addition, YOTEL Porto's location gives direct access to the airport (15 km from the hotel) via Trindade Metro Station whilst São Bento Train Station is also nearby, famous for its illustrative blue and white tiles.

KOMYUNITI

Our multi-purpose social space is as flexible as life in the digital age. Catch up on emails or meet up with colleagues; grab a bite to eat or while away an evening with friends. Think of it as easy-come, easy-go hospitality, with charging points and free Wi-Fi, fun, fresh, playlists and affordable food and drinks.

MISSION CONTROL

Mission Control is YOTEL talk for a reception desk. Available 24/7, this one-stop service area caters to your every need, from emergency supplies and toiletries to extra keys and towels. Reach our Mission Control crew by phone from your room or stop by to say hello.

MEETINGS & EVENTS

YOTEL Porto has two meeting rooms (each one of them with approx. 40 sqm) that can be booked for up to 40 people theatre style. It also has an outdoor patio with seating for 25 people.

PARKING

Guests and visitors will be able to access the hotel's private parking facilities on site for €17/day. Charging stations for electric vehicles are also available.

GYM

Our modern gym is open 24/7. Located on the ground floor of the hotel, the space is kitted out with the latest Technogym brand equipment.
