Location

Matera is one of Italy's most captivating cities, renowned for its Sassi – ancient cave dwellings carved into the tufa rock. As the third-oldest city in the world, it has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1993. Walking through its streets is like stepping back in time, surrounded by rock-hewn churches dating back 12,000 years and ancient homes still in use today.

In recent years, Matera has attracted international attention, having been named the 2019 European Capital of Culture. That same year, it hosted the major film production No Time To Die, the 25th James Bond film. The city has frequently been chosen for acclaimed productions, from Pasolini's Christ Stopped at Eboli to The Book of Clarence by Jeymes Samuel.

This unique blend of history, authenticity, and visual charm makes the city an ideal location not only for audiovisual productions but also for travellers in search of spectacular settings.

Our hotel is located right here, just steps from history, in the heart of the city's timeless past.
